Newsletter of Columbus / Columbus North High School Alumni Association

Message From Our President

Dear Fellow Bull Dogs:

It is with great Bull Dog pride that I report that for the fourth year in a row Columbus North High School has been recognized as a recipient of the Advanced Placement award from the Indiana Department of Education. This award recognizes schools who have at least 25 percent of their graduating class receive a 3, 4 or 5 on an AP exam. CNHS received its award on June 12 at the Indiana Statehouse with 31 percent of its graduating class achieving this level.

Alumni Association member and Principal David Clark stated, "They want to push themselves and do better. It's very heartening to me."

In recent news releases, Dr. Jennifer McCormick, Indiana Superintendent of Public Instruction, stated, "Research shows access, participation, and success in AP courses prepares students for the rigors of higher education. I am proud to say Indiana schools are providing preparation for future opportunities for our students. I applaud the success of each student and school who worked hard to meet the rigorous demands of Advanced Placement work."

We also applaud Columbus North and congratulate them on this honor.

On another Bull Dog note, Columbus High School/Columbus North High School and your Bull Dog Alumni Association, along with members of the community, are preparing for our launching of the celebration of the 150th anniversary of our Bull Dog heritage in Columbus, Indiana. This is truly a remarkable moment in our history, and many activities are being planned by a group of very dedicated volunteers through their support both financial and otherwise.

One of the tenets of our celebration is to exalt and celebrate 150 years of excellence in public education through the activities of faculty, students, and alumni at Columbus North. In talking with many in our community, all of us understand the rich heritage and traditions of our Bull Dog Nation. It is incumbent upon all of us to build upon the strong foundation of the excellence at Columbus High School/Columbus North High School to insure that the traditions and legacy continue for future generations.

You, as members of the Bull Dog Alumni Association, are an important component of celebrating this 150th anniversary of the great Bull Dog Nation. I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible throughout this next year as we continue to advance the academic excellence and educational environment at Columbus North High School.

Yours in Bull Dog service,

Pete

Pete King ('72), President

Bull Dog Proud!

Four Freshmen Get 150th Anniversary Celebration Underway!

We had an exciting kick-off to our 150th Anniversary Year when the Four Freshmen came to Erne Auditorium in August. Six-hundred Bull Dog music fans enjoyed a great evening of old and new numbers.

The group came to Columbus early and held a workshop for the CNHS vocal jazz students on Saturday afternoon; and then the students opened the evening show with "Satin Doll".

It was a thrill for the kids both afternoon and evening. And then it was a thrill for the audience to watch the kids take the stage that evening to open the show.

(Awesome Show!)

Many, many thanks to the Four Freshmen and all the attendees for supporting our current crop of outstanding Bull Dogs and the Bull Dog Alumni Association's programs!

C⁴ Provides Solid Foundation For Building Our Community

When Phil Ehrman received his CNHS diploma in June of 2010, he didn't know exactly where he was headed. But he had the tools to get there, thanks to the time he spent in the C⁴ program at CNHS.

Today, at age 26, he's doing what he wanted.

Phil 2010

Phil today

As the owner of Benchmark Homes, LLC in Columbus, he's come a long way in the eight years since he left CNHS. We sat down and had a short conversation with him recently.

When asked how he ended up where he is today, he said he knew after high school that he wanted to get into "the business". He always enjoyed construction. He started flipping houses, then moved into building new "spec" homes and performing remodeling jobs, and now is also building custom homes.

When asked what the biggest thing was that he brought from CNHS, he shared that it was an overall mechanical knowledge. He participated in a full complement of building trades and auto mechanics classes when at CNHS. The construction and auto mechanics classes and projects provided excellent hands-on experience and gave him solid troubleshooting experiences (particularly the auto mechanics work); and those trouble-shooting basics translate well in the construction world. This speaks great things for the C⁴ program!

The biggest thing he's learned after C⁴ is that hard work takes you farther and is most rewarding. He most enjoys following projects from start-to-finish, seeing structures change into a finished product, and meeting and working with different clients. The downside, according to Phil, would be time away from family due to long hours that are often required.

What does the future hold? Expanding the business and opening a second storefront in the next couple years!

Our favorite part of the interview was asking him about the biggest influencers he had in school. He quickly named C⁴ staff members Mike Metz, David Stidham, and Darin Johnson! Good stuff!!

While on the subject of the C⁴ program, this author met Mr. Darin Johnson at the recently completed National Symposium in Columbus that is the prelude to 2019's Exhibit Columbus coming up next year.

Bull Dog Alumni Newsletter

While there to see former Bull Dogs on the docket (Kyle Kingen – 2017 and Matt Shaw – 2002), I just happened to be sitting behind Mr. Johnson when he was recognized by one speaker. After the session, we spoke briefly and found out he was there as an advisor to the Columbus High School team that will again create one of the installations. He’s pictured below with CNHS student Maika Shibata who will be part of the student team!

(Darin Johnson & Matt Shaw at symposium)

It’s great to see CNHS once again involved with Exhibit Columbus. The 2019 exhibit will once again bring thousands of people to Columbus! If 2017’s exhibit is any indication, the high school exhibit will be one of the highlights!!

A final pleasant surprise during the symposium was that Matt Shaw (CNHS – 2002) was a moderator and speaker at one of the sessions. Matt is the Executive Editor of The Architect’s Newspaper.

The Exhibit Columbus website has the following plug for the C⁴ program:

The 2019 exhibition will include five Miller Prize Installations, five Washington Street Installations, six University Design Research Fellowships, and the Columbus High School Design Team from Bartholomew County School Corporation’s C4 Program.

But the C⁴ alums seem to be doing their own plugs with their accomplishments!!

Drama Department Plans

(from John Johnson)

Hello, all. I wanted to take a minute to share with you what North Drama is doing this year to meet the theatrical needs of our school community. This is the most diverse and fascinating season of theatre I have seen us attempt in a long while.

North Drama is the faculty driven portion of the theatre arts program and we do two main stage shows a year, usually a play in December and a musical in March. We are flipping that schedule on its ear this year. Our musical is Mary Poppins and will be a big holiday spectacular. We have already contracted with ZFX Flying Services, and plan to pull out all the stops as we bring the stage version of the beloved Disney film and the classic Travers' books to life. I have been working with the North High School theatre program for 25 years now and this is the first show to give me pause. But I think its going to be amazing. The show will be December 7-9, and is directed by me, John Johnson.

Our play this year is a beautiful and powerful adaptation of Mark Haddon's novel The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time. If you haven't read the book about a British teenager accused of a crime he didn't commit, you are missing out on a fascinating read. As Christopher decides to solve the crime himself, he undertakes a journey that leads him to learn more about himself, his family and his world. The story is told from his perspective, which is nothing extraordinary, except that Christopher is autistic, which frames the novel and subsequently the play in entirely different ways. We will have a huge audio visual component to this production as we attempt to realize Christopher's mindscape as our set. The performances will be April 5-7, to be in conjunction with Autism Awareness month. This show will be directed by Julie Hult.

In addition to these mainstage North Drama productions, the Thespian Society, Troupe #57 will present at least two productions this year. The International Thespian Society is a worldwide organization of high school students who support and love high school theatre. Membership is by invitation, but their productions are open to all students and staff. In just a few weeks, they will be mounting a production of John Patrick Shanley's Doubt, a play about a Catholic parish school in 1963; when questions arise about the conduct of one of the priests, the hard, nun principal struggles with what she knows is true, what she's been taught is true and what she hopes is true. This production is a senior project directed by Leah Rodriguez. They will also mount their annual Showcase of student directed short plays, original scripts and monologues. These performances will be in January. There is also discussion to resurrect our burgeoning improvisation troupe and a few other theatrical events this year.

Changes to True Blue

One change we’re making to True Blue is to remove recapping all the sports teams in each edition. The CNHS Athletics page is too well done and up-to-date for us to try to sneak snippets into True Blue for each team.

We encourage each of you to make their web site a favorite in your browser and make exploring there a regular entry on your calendar!

<https://columbusnorthathletics.org/>

We’ll continue to provide so athletic stories in True Blue, but we’ll not bore you with recaps of weeks-old sports seasons going forward.

Another way we’d REALLY like some help is if you wanted to let us know of Bull Dog alumni accomplishments AFTER they’ve left high school, so we’re recruiting all of you as reporters! Please send all your “news stories” to:

cnhsalumni@bcsc.k12.in.us

Have an inquiry about Class Lists?

Maintaining class lists is the responsibility of each class; we can point you to main contact person for each class ---

<http://www.columbusnorthalumni.org/reunion-resource-page/class-contact-information/>

If your class doesn’t have a contact person listed, please let us know, and we’ll see what we can find out for you.

Reunion Planning Season

Reunion planning is underway for 2019 (and even 2020). Be sure to let us know of reunions your class is planning! We’ll help spread the word.

Annual Campaign

In addition, we continue to work on our regular events and programs – all aimed at building excellence at our alma mater. Some of the highlights of our 2018 activities include:

- Kicking off our 150th anniversary year with a memorable, well-attended concert by the iconic vocal group of the 50s and 60s – The Four Freshmen – founded by Columbus High alumni Ross and Don Barbour.
- Dedicating a Veteran’s Memorial Display inside CNHS to pay homage to Columbus and Columbus North High School alumni who paid the ultimate price in service to our country.
- Naming the 3rd recipient of our annual Outstanding Teacher award – Mike Spock.
- Inducting our 6th Hall of Fame class: Sandy Hutton Carmichael ’67, Victoria Long Toensing ’58, and Dennis Unger ’59.
- Publishing and distributing our True Blue newsletter to thousands of alumni.
- Assisting several alumni classes annually with Reunion planning and activities.
- Most importantly, in 2018 we will provide well over $20,000 in scholarships and grants to Bull Dog alumni, students and faculty for college education and a wide range of programs, supplies and activities that enrich the educational experience at CNHS!

As public funding shrinks, the need for supporting Bull Dog students and faculty grows. We need your help to make a meaningful difference. Donations from Bull Dog supporters like us fund all these efforts. And, it would be GREAT for Class of ’68 to lead the way in this year’s campaign!

You can easily donate electronically at our web site – or by check:

150th Anniversary History

The History Committee is continuing work on compiling historical materials for the high school in Columbus dating back to the mid-1800s. The Columbus / Columbus North High School history will be a challenge to compile and a challenge to maintain going forward. Only disjointed snippets of such a history exists today, so the team(s) working on the data gathering and compilation has a huge challenge before them.

Again, we implore any of you who might have historical materials, artifacts, photographs, news clippings, or documents to let us know of these items. Anything you might have to share with them will be invaluable to their efforts. We're talking about, not just CHS/CNHS items but nostalgic materials associated with students such as, for example, from the Olympia, Zaharako's, the Jive Kennel, or corporate items associated with the school.

The finished work of this team will also include updated and improved Bull dog archives along with historical reference links from our website.

One short-term goal is to create a coffee-table type book of key historical photographs and materials in time for our grand finale event in May of 2019.

If anyone is interested in helping in any area, please let us know!

150th Anniversary – Documentary

One very exciting project that is just ready to kick-off is work by the history team and students at CHNS to create a documentary on the history of the high school.

To this end, the media students at the school are asking for volunteers to be interviewed as part of the process. They will provide participants with a list of potential questions / discussion points prior to the interview so interviewees can be prepared and the best use of everyone’s time can be made.

If you would like to be a part of sharing your high school memories (from the most recent Columbus North memories back to CHS on 25th Street and further back to CHS on Pearl Street), please let them know as soon as possible.

You can email them at:

COLUMBUS150YEARS@GMAIL.COM

They will contact you and set up a time to speak with you. This is not only a time to share, but it’s also a great opportunity to help in the development of the students involved!

150th Anniversary – Soliciting Memories

If you don’t want to be part of the documentary or interview process, we’d still love to hear from YOU with personal stories of what school has meant to you or your family over the years. We’d also like to hear about interesting events or happenings that are favorite memories of yours from your time associated with anything Bull Dog! Anything you’d like to send us --- from SILLY to SERIOUS --- we’d like to see and share some of your personal stories over the next several months. Your story can encourage others to share, as well.

Just put “Celebrating 150” in the subject line and send your story or contact information to:
